

EMERGENCY RESPONSE UNIT

The ERU can be hooked up to any vehicle with a ball or a pintel hitch.

ERU can be customized to your needs or specifications.

In critical situations, you don't want to waste time looking all over for the required equipment, the ERU is made just for this purpose. This unit is complete, compact, and ready to roll at a moments notice. The ERU is ideal for Traffic Control, Dangerous Weather Conditions, Elevated Threat Levels, Gate Closures, Random Checkpoints, Random Sobriety Tests, and Security Operations.

This unit is available in either Military or Civilian.

We can customize this unit to your needs and specifications.
